DECISION AWARDING DAMAGES<sup>1</sup>

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On November 29, 2016, petitioner filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,<sup>2</sup> (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that she suffered “severe left shoulder pain” resulting from an influenza (“flu”) vaccination on October 3, 2015. Pet. at 1. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On August 18, 2017, a ruling on entitlement was issued, finding petitioner entitled to compensation for a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (“SIRVA”). On November 16, 2017, respondent filed a proffer on award of compensation (“Proffer”) indicating petitioner should be awarded $112,500.00. Proffer at 1. In the Proffer, respondent represented that petitioner agrees with the proffered award. Based on the

RESPONDENT'S PROFFER ON AWARD OF COMPENSATION

On August 18, 2017, the Chief Special Master found that a preponderance of the medical evidence indicates that petitioner suffered a left shoulder injury related to vaccine administration ("SIRVA"), which was causally related to the influenza ("flu") vaccination she received on October 3, 2015. The parties now address the amount of compensation to be awarded in this case.

I.      Items of Compensation

Based upon the evidence of record, respondent proffers that petitioner should be awarded $112,500.00, which represents all elements of compensation to which petitioner would be entitled under 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a).<sup>1</sup> Petitioner agrees.

<sup>1</sup> Should petitioner die prior to entry of judgment, the parties reserve the right to move the Court for appropriate relief. In particular, respondent would oppose any award for future medical expenses and future pain and suffering.

II. Form of the Award

Petitioner is a competent adult. Accordingly, the parties recommend that the compensation provided to petitioner should be made through a lump sum payment of $112,500.00 in the form of a check payable to petitioner. Petitioner agrees.
